Tracee M. Bomberger exhibits her work at the 2011 Designer Showhouse, benefitting Boys and Girls Club.

Sarasota, FL, January 26, 2011 – Tracee M. Bomberger, ASID and owner of Trade Mark Interiors, Inc., a full service interior design firm specializing in luxury homes, exhibits her work at the 2011 Designer Showhouse. Being held at The Powel Crosley Estate, all proceeds from the event will benefit the Boys and Girls Club of both Manatee and Sarasota Counties. Tours run through Sunday, February 20, 2011.

For the third time in the history of the event, the Designer Showhouse returns to the Powel Crosley Mansion. This year, the exhibit will be unveiled at the newly restored Circa 1926 Carriage House, which has never before been open to the public. Tracee is challenged with the small space of a hallway connecting the chauffeur's quarters. As she exemplifies her talents through the use of color, window shades and fabrics as well as decorative art, Tracee transforms a simple hallway into a beautiful gateway to the rooms surrounding it.

With more than 15 years of experience nationwide, Tracee helps high-end homeowners throughout the Sarasota area increase the value of their homes. In addition to her design expertise, Tracee has also worked as a real estate agent, allowing her additional insight into how certain interior improvements drastically affect a homes' value.
